Subject to the conditions of warranty set out in clause 10.2 the Seller warrants that if any defect in any workmanship of the Seller becomes apparent and is reported to the Seller within twelve (12) months of the date of delivery (time being of the essence) then the Seller will either (at the Seller's sole discretion) replace or remedy the workmanship. 10.2 The conditions applicable to the warranty given by clause 10.1 are: (a) the warranty shall not cover any defect or damage which may be caused or partly caused by or arise through: (i) failure on the part of the Client to properly maintain any Goods; or (ii) failure on the part of the Client to follow any instructions or guidelines provided by the Seller; or (iii) any use of any Goods otherwise than for any application specified on a quote or order form; or (iv) the continued use of any Goods after any defect becomes apparent or would have become apparent to a reasonably prudent operator or user; or (v) fair wear and tear, any accident or act of God. (b) the warranty shall cease and the Seller shall thereafter in no circumstances be liable under the terms of the warranty if the workmanship is repaired, altered or overhauled without the Seller's consent. (c) in respect of all claims the Seller shall not be liable to compensate the Client for any delay in either replacing or remedying the workmanship or in properly assessing the Client's claim. This warranty should be read in conjunction with our full Terms of Trade, available from www.harbourglass.com or our showroom. Nothing in this agreement is intended to overrule current laws pertaining to consumer guarantee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within shall override legislation unless indications present as to be caused not by the agents of Harbour Glass but by others. Other than Harbour Glass.
